Voyantic Marketing Partnership Program for Machine Manufacturers

We know that RFID can be difficult to newcomers. Voyantic helps machine manufacturers to excel in RFID by offering sales and marketing collaboration.

The Voyantic Marketing Partnership Program enables the Partner to leverage Voyantic's RFID expertise and use it in providing value for both the Partner and Partner's customers. Through the Program Voyantic helps in communicating the value of Voyantic Tagsurance System to potential customers through sales support, demonstrations and materials, and provides the partner with visibility on the Voyantic website.

WHAT IS INCLUDED

1. Joint Solution Brief

We will prepare a joint solution brief describing the integration of the Voyantic quality testing solution in the Partner machines.

The first version of the solution brief will be produced by Voyantic based on the information received from the Partner. The Solution brief is not published, without approval from the Partner.

2. Online Visibility

We will include the Partner company introduction and product information on the Voyantic website, with links to Partner's own website.

3. Sales Tools and Training

Get access to Voyantic sales materials with a ready presentation and sales and technical documentation

We also offer online training for Partner sales team on request.

4. Demo and Event Support

We offer the possibility to book online demonstrations provided by Voyantic to support partners' sales process (Online demo from Voyantic's showroom).

You will also have an opportunity to apply for a loaner Voyantic Tagsurance 3 demo system for your demo machines, for tradeshow and showrooms, free-of-charge.

WHAT WE REQUEST

1. Permission to include Partner name and logo to Voyantic web-site with links to Partner's own website.
2. Permission to share Voyantic web-site link with partner logo, and possible solutions brief in Voyantic's marketing and sales communication.
3. To include the Voyantic Logo with link to Voyantic web-site (and the joint solution brief) on a relevant page(s) on Partner website.

Partner or Voyantic may terminate the participation to the Program at any time.
